2007-2008 successes

- Abilities United became our new name in the spring of 2008. We have received very positive responses from participants, families, staff, volunteers and donors. Many thanks to the Taproot foundation volunteers for their outstanding work on this and to many of you who helped us in the process.

- We adopted our four year strategic plan which reflects an exciting vision to build a community that fully includes people with developmental and physical disabilities.

- Employment Services successfully placed 39 adults in jobs and provided ongoing job coaching to 120 adults. Their job retention rate is an outstanding 90%. 10 new businesses were recruited to employ our participants.

- Independent Living Skills grew significantly this year with 48 new individuals and served a total of 89 participants to lead the lives they choose.

- Community Connections was launched in September 2007, with grants from individual donors and the Silicon Valley Community Foundation. 16 partnerships have been built with community organizations that offer participants volunteer and educational opportunities.

- The life of a Respite family has been changed forever because of an outpouring of gifts from community members throughout the Bay Area after the family was featured in the San Jose Mercury News “Wishbook”.

- Janel Astor, Director of Children’s Development Services, received the “Outstanding Professional” award from the San Mateo County Commission on Disabilities for her dedicated work in early intervention and child development.

- The Helen Rubin Emergency Fund provided assistance to over 85 participants this year. We are eternally grateful to Bud Rubin who established this special fund in 2001 in memory of his wife. Hundreds of lives have been changed because these funds are available to program participants when they most need them.

- We made an extra special effort to reach out to all of our former Board members spanning 40 years of volunteer service. A new Board Emeritus Fund established by Jeff and Debbie Byron will be just one more way that these exceptional community leaders can continue to support Abilities United and its mission.

Community-based fund-raising at its finest!

Each year, donors, participants, staff, and volunteers work countless hours to make sure Abilities United sets a record for the Aquathon and Authors’ Luncheon. 2007-2008 was no exception. The bar just gets set higher and the results speak for themselves...

With your help, these two events raised over $400,000 for program services in 2007-2008!

Who would have thought, when the Aquathon and Authors’ Luncheon were launched years ago, that they would one day contribute nearly one quarter of our donations.

It is your generosity that makes it possible for us to raise record donations at these events. Your commitment to fund raising enables us to continue to create new and valuable programs to meet the changing needs of participants.

Special thanks to Aquathon volunteers:

One Brick Volunteers
John Rothmann
Susan Roy
Heather Stout
JT Troll
Vickie Yamaoka

Special thanks to Authors’ Luncheon committee members and volunteers lead by:

Books Inc.
Julia Colella Carver
Janice Edwards, NBC11
Laurie Jarrett
Karen Moore

Congratulations to the hundreds of volunteers who make these success stories possible. We honestly could never manage two large back-to-back fundraising events without you putting in thousands of hours and leading the charge.

Thank you!
“Super Dave”, how fitting, for a man who brought so much laughter into the lives of each person he met. Many of us at Abilities United had the pleasure to know Dave and we only hope you were blessed to have met him. Dave died on Tuesday, September 16, 2008 but Dave is still with us in thousands of ways. The outpouring of online posts in response to his obituary truly attest to the impact Dave has on individuals from all over the world. What an incredible testimony to the difference he made in so many lives.

The Sunday of Dave’s memorial service was appropriately warm and sunny, just like his personality. Six hundred of Dave’s admirers, and yes, they are admirers, stood in a long line, one that snaked outside and around the building, to pay tribute to the young man who brought laughter, smiles, and love to each person who crossed his path. They came to remember a man with a refreshingly positive attitude, an attitude that most of us can only wish for. His many positive attributes include a musical talent which he shared with the community as a member of the Stanford marching band. In recognition of his contribution, and as possibly the most recognized member, the band played in his honor.

Abilities United is blessed to have worked many years with Dave and in true Dave character, he left a legacy to Abilities United. His many loving friends and relatives honored Dave’s memory with generous gifts that will benefit the friends he made at Abilities United.

“We knew that David had touched many lives, but this outpouring from all over the country is just amazing,” reads an online comment posted by his mother, Susan. “I hope, and do believe, that David knew how many people loved him.”

Yes Dave, you were loved and you are loved. By the thousands.

Your friends at Abilities United

David Hahn... a life well lived, one that touched thousands

New friends helped us find our new identity

We celebrated our second anniversary as partners with Benny Points, the Taproot Foundation, and Wilson, Sonsini, Goodrich & Rosati with a brand new look and a new name to go with it!

Individual volunteers from Benny Points, Taproot, and WSGR contributed thousands of hours of their professional experience to help us come up with our new name, Abilities United, as well as our new look, logo, and legal status.

And we couldn’t be more pleased! The Abilities United name and brand have been embraced by the community at large. The talent and tenacity of these volunteers made this endeavor a success.

You will always be remembered for your very visible contribution to Abilities United! Thank you!

Benny Points: Chris Catlin
Taproot Foundation: Marion Seidel, Christine Schwartz, Sharon Crost, Tejas Bhandarkar
Wilson, Sonsini, Goodrich & Rosati: Mike Nader, Rachel Proffitt, John Slafsky, Diane Stadian, Jane Wilson

Contributors made these gifts during the fiscal year July 1, 2007 - June 30, 2008. Please let us know of any corrections including name and address change. We apologize for any mistakes or omissions.
